- a. The corruption risk assessment process is depicted in the diagram below:

- b. The BOD, through the RMC, shall oversee and ensure accountability of corruption risk identified with the corresponding controls to be implemented.
- c. The risk parameters (i.e. financial impact, customer relationship and reputation / media) are established to evaluate the consequences of a risk, namely likelihood of occurrence and criticality of impact, based on Tashin's risk appetite.
- d. Risk Register is developed to capture both possible and actual corruption scheme(s), root causes, existing key controls and impact. The risks are then evaluated based on the likelihood of occurrence and criticality of impact (i.e., Low, Medium, High and Extreme) to provide a basis for Management in strategic decision-making process and mitigation of corruption risks.
- e. RMC of Tashin shall conduct regular risk assessment i.e. on an annual basis and/or when there is a change in law or circumstance of the business to ensure the identified corruption risks are remains relevant and adequate mitigating controls are discussed and implemented.
- f. Specific anti-corruption plan shall be identified by the respective Heads of Department and reported to the CFO for review and monitoring.

5.0 Gift and Corporate Hospitality

Tashin recognises the importance of gift and corporate hospitality giving/ acceptance, donation and sponsorship activities to maintain good rapport with its vendors, customers and government officials. The policies and procedures set out below are to safeguard the Group's reputation and to protect its employee from allegation of soliciting bribe, corruption or exercising undue influence on external party(s) for personal gain.

5.1. "No Gift" Policy

- a. Tashin has adopted a "No Gift" policy whereby, subject only to certain narrow exceptions, Tashin's employees and directors (executive and non-executive), family members or agents acting for or on behalf of Tashin's employees, directors or their family members are prohibited from, directly or indirectly, receiving or providing gifts.
- b. Tashin requires all employees and directors to abide by this policy to avoid conflict of interest or the appearance of conflict of interest for either party in on-going or potential business dealings between Tashin and external parties as a gift can be seen as a bribe that may tarnish Tashin's reputation or be in violation of anti-bribery and corruption laws.

It is the responsibility of employees and directors to inform external parties involved in any business dealings with Tashin that the Company practices a "No Gift" policy and to request the external party's understanding for and adherence with this policy.

5.2. Exceptions to "No Gift" Policy

Although generally Tashin practices a "No Gift" policy, there are certain exceptions to the general rule whereby the receiving and provision of gifts are permitted in the following situations:

- Exchange of gifts at the company-to-company level (e.g. gifts exchanged between companies as part of an official company visit/courtesy call and thereafter said gift is treated as company property);
- Gifts from company to external institutions or individuals in relation to the company's official functions, events and celebrations (e.g. commemorative gifts or door gifts offered to all guests attending the event);
- Gifts from Tashin to employees and directors and/or their family members in relation to an internal or externally recognised Company function, event and celebration (e.g. in recognition of an employee's/director's service to the Company);
- Token gifts of nominal value normally bearing the Tashin or company's logo or (e.g. t-shirts, pens, diaries, calendars and other small promotional items) that are given out equally to members of the public, delegates, customers, partners and key stakeholders attending events such as conferences, exhibitions, training, trade shows etc. and deemed as part of the company's brand building or promotional activities; and
- Gifts to charitable organisations or the equivalent who have no business dealings with Tashin (e.g. monetary gifts or gifts in-kind to charitable organisations).

5.3. Purchase of Gift and Corporate Hospitality

- a. Purchase requisition pertaining gift and corporate hospitality shall be a reasonable amount. Such gifts and hospitality shall fulfil ALL the following conditions prior to approval:
 - i. They are intended to maintain good rapport with the vendors/ customers of the Group and government officials;
 - ii. They are limited, customary and lawful under the circumstances;
 - iii. They do not have or perceived to be affecting action(s) or decision(s) of the receiving party;
 - iv. There shall be no expectation of any specific favour, benefit or advantages from the intended recipients;
 - v. There shall not be any corrupt/ criminal intent; and
 - vi. The giving out of gift or corporate hospitality shall be transparent.
- b. Any purchase of gift or corporate hospitality, subject to the fulfilment of condition as stipulated in Clause 5.2 and Clause 5.3(a), requires approval based on the LOA of Tashin,
- c. Approval from the authorised personnel can be arranged through emails or formal request. The records must be kept and maintained by the Accounts and/or HR Department.
- d. Purchase requisition pertaining to gift and corporate hospitality for government official from the public sector, it shall be restricted to statutory limit of the respective countries. However, gift in the form of cash or cash equivalent shall never be given or offered to any public or government officials.
- e. Purchase requisition on gift or corporate hospitality shall follow the basic principles of transparency declaration and be recorded. ALL gifts and corporate hospitality to be given, shall be recorded in Gift & Corporate Hospitality Register, indicated with purpose of requisition, including client or vendor name or representative details.
- f. In the event of any dispute between any internal practices, existing policy and or procedure already imbedded within the constitution of the organisation prior to the commencement of this ABAC Policy & Guidelines, the limits set in Clause 5 of this ABAC Policy & Guidelines shall prevail over all other documentation.

5.4. Gift Acceptance

- a. Under no circumstances that an employee of the Group shall receive or solicit for personal gift from an external party.
- b. Although the general principle is to immediately refuse or return such gifts, accepting a gift on behalf of Tashin is allowed only in very limited circumstances, whereby refusing the gift is likely to seriously offend and may sever Tashin's business relationship with the Third Party. However, in no circumstances may an employee, director or his/her family/household members accept gifts in the form of cash or cash equivalent.
- c. ALL gift received from external party(s) requires declaration to the Human Resource ("HR") Department using the Gift & Corporate Hospitality Register, and report to MD every six months or a shorter period, if the need arises for his review.

5.5. Corporate Hospitality Acceptance

- a. Under no circumstances that an Employee and Director of the Group shall accept or solicit entertainment in the exercise of their duties and responsibilities towards the company which is regarded detrimental to Tashin.
- b. Employees and Directors of the Group shall exercise proper care and judgment prior to accepting any entertainment from external party. This is vital to safeguard the Group's reputation and to protect its employee from allegation of soliciting bribe or corruption.
- c. All corporate hospitality received from external party(s) requires declaration to the HR Department using the Gift & Corporate Hospitality Register, and be reviewed by the MD every six months or a shorter period, if the need arises for his review.

6.0 Corporate Social Responsibility

- a. Given the nature of Tashin's business, government agencies or local authority bodies may request for sponsorship and/ or donations in respect of CSR events. As part of Tashin's commitment to CSR and sustainable development, as a general matter, Tashin provides such assistance in appropriate circumstances and in an appropriate manner.
- b. Such requests shall be examined for legitimacy and not be made to improperly influence a business outcome. The proposed recipient shall be a legitimate organisation and appropriate due diligence shall be conducted in particular to ascertain whether any Public Officials are affiliated with the organisation. Any red flags shall be resolved before committing any funds to the programme. Even requests determined to be legitimate shall be carefully structured to ensure that the benefits reach their intended recipients.
- c. If any employees or Directors are in any doubt as to whether a charitable contribution or social benefit is appropriate, Management shall seek legal consultation accordingly.

6.1 Donation and Sponsorship

- a. The Policy & Guidelines, in accordance with Tashin's commitment to contribute to the community coupled with its values of integrity and transparency, all sponsorships and donations shall comply with the following:
- ensure such contributions are allowed by applicable laws;
 - obtain all the necessary internal and external authorisations;
 - be made to well established entities having an adequate organisational structure to guarantee proper administration of the funds;
 - be accurately stated in the company's accounting books and records; and
 - not to be used as a means to cover up an undue payment or bribery.

Examples of red flags to look out for are as follows:

- The proposed recipient /organisation have affiliations with a public official or their relatives are involved;
 - The contribution is made on behalf of a public official;
 - There is a risk of a perceived improper advantage for Tashin; or
 - The proposed recipient is based in a high-risk country, the request comes from a high-risk country or the activity takes place in a high-risk country.
- b. Tashin requires employees to use good judgment and common sense in assessing the requests. When in doubt, employees shall seek for legal advice or escalate the matter to the MD to determine the authenticity of such requests.
- c. ALL Corporate Social Responsibility ("CSR") related sponsorships and donations shall be made in accordance with Tashin's policies as stipulated in Clause 6.1(a) with prior approval based on the LOA of Tashin.
- d. ALL donations and sponsorship payment shall be supported with an official letter of request from the requesting external party and proof of receipt.

7.0 Facilitation and Extortion Payments

- a. Facilitation payment to external party, in particular, government officials, is strictly prohibited as it is seen as a form of bribery and corruption. Extortion payment to external party, on the other hand, is not categorised as an illegal activity by legal means, as the health, safety and liberty of one is paramount.
- b. The CFO shall maintain a record of such event and report the payment to the relevant authority.

7.1. Facilitation Payment

- a. Facilitation payment to external party, in particular, government officials, is strictly prohibited as it is seen as a form of bribery and corruption, unless it can be proven that such payment is legitimate and supported by an official receipt.
- b. Facilitation payment shall not be in any way or form be disguised or translated in personnel remuneration package.
- c. Subject to the fulfilment of criteria in Clause 7.1(a), facilitation payment request may be approved by the MD.

7.2. Exception to Facilitation Payment (Extortion Payment)

- a. Extortion payment to any party shall not be made unless the employee(s) and or their families health, safety and or liberty are threatened.
- b. Subject to the fulfilment of criteria in Clause 7.2(a), extortion payment request may be approved by the MD.

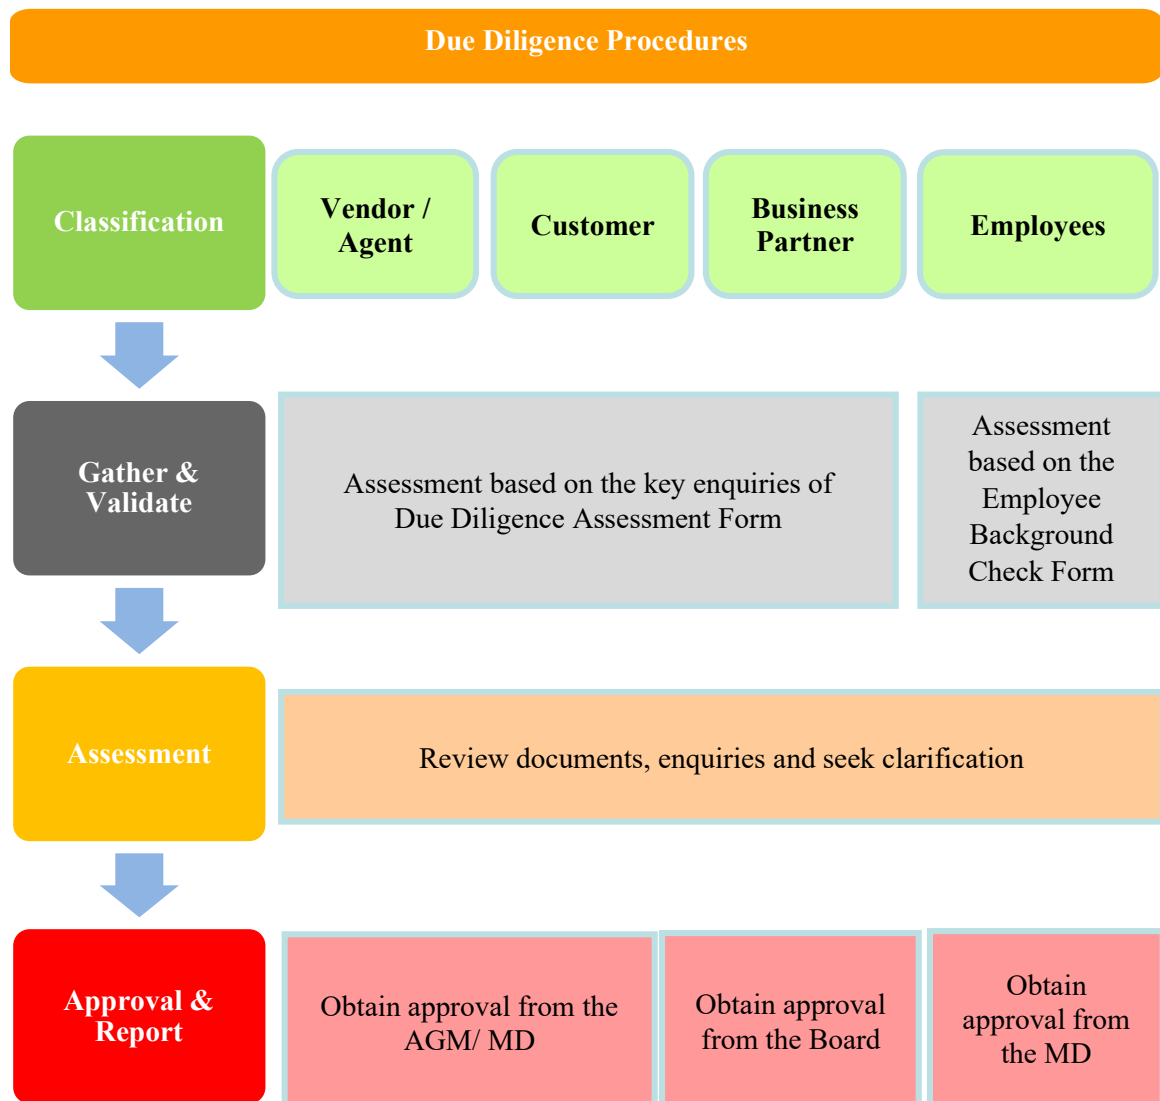

8.0 Due Diligence Procedures and Dealing with External Parties

Tashin recognises the objective of due diligence procedures on customers, business partners, vendors and employees to evaluate the risk of bribery and corruption associated with these parties. This also serves as a basis for decision making, whether to accept or reject before entering into any contractual arrangement or business dealing.

Tashin Group shall require due diligence procedures to be applied on the key stakeholders below:

 - ii. Avoiding dealing with any vendor, sub-contractors, or agents who known or reasonably suspected of corrupt practices;
 - iii. Ensuring that all new vendors/ sub-contractors/ agents are subject to background assessment and conflict of interest check prior to registration and acceptance;
 - iv. Communicating the Policy & Guidelines requirements to vendor, sub-contractors or agents;
 - v. All contracts/agreement entered with vendors, sub-contractors or agents to incorporate a provision whereby Tashin retains right to audit third party compliance with the Policy & Guidelines; and
 - vi. All agents/sub-contractors/vendors/suppliers are required to declare on their adherence to the Policy & Guidelines requirements.
- b. . The key components of vendor/ agent due diligence procedures cover the following but may vary depending on the circumstances:
 - i. Corporate profile;
 - ii. Company search via Suruhanjaya Syarikat Malaysia (“SSM”) or equivalent authorities in the respective countries of operation;
 - iii. Financial background;
 - iv. Directorship;
 - v. Past records of criminal, bribery or corruption cases; and
 - vi. Potential conflict with existing employees or Director of the Group.
- c. The results and/ or any concern raised during this due diligence assessment shall be communicated to and with approval from the AGM/ MD prior to entering into the relationship.

8.2. Dealing with Customers

- a. In ensuring that Tashin dealings with its customers complies with relevant rules, regulations and the Policy & Guidelines requirements, the safeguard procedures below are required:
 - i. All new customers are subject to background assessment and conflict of interest check prior to entering into a business dealing; and
